Case Management Policy Statement - Judge Ludwig

1. A Rule 16 scheduling conference will be held within 60 or so days after an action is filed, and a Case Management order will be entered. Fed.R.Civ.P. 16. Counsel will be asked to outline the specific discovery and trial preparation needs of the case and alternative dispute resolution possibilities. See Rule 16 Conference Information Report form.

2. Motions to dismiss, transfer, add parties and other threshold motions should be filed, whenever possible, before the conference.

Summary judgment motions must be received by the court and nonmovants at least 30 days before trial date unless otherwise permitted.

3. The initial conference will usually take 15 minutes. If inconvenient for counsel to appear in person, a telephone conference may be held. In a complex case, or where settlement is practicable, counsel should attend.

4. In an uncomplicated case, discovery is to be completed in 90 days. In more protracted cases, discovery will be divided into 60-90 day intervals, and counsel will be directed to file a Joint Discovery Schedule, or successive Schedules, on a form supplied, until the case is ready for a trial listing. Arbitration appeals will receive early trial listings, usually within 30-60 days.

5. The trial listing will be for a specific date - ordinarily Monday for jury trials, with up to five other cases, and Thursdays for bench trials. These listings are not "pool" assignments. The case will be called for trial on the date specified or as soon thereafter as practicable. A special listing will not be recognized if entered after the date of the scheduling order.

6. The discovery deadline means that all known discovery must be concluded by that date. Discovery may take place thereafter only by agreement or with court approval.

7. Foreseeable discovery problems, including noncompliance or tardiness, ordinarily will not constitute a ground for continuance of the trial listing. Counsel should act promptly to enforce the discovery schedule and should not permit depositions, medical and other examinations, or discovery in general to be postponed.
8. Counsel are responsible for compliance with the scheduling order.
9. In a discovery default - i.e., when timely discovery is not forthcoming after an attempt to obtain it - the court's immediate assistance should be employed, by a motion for an order to compel. A conference call is an option. See Local Civil Rule 26.1(g). However, as to discovery disputes, a motion is the last recourse. If counsel cannot resolve, a telephone conference is the next step. If a discovery dispute motion to compel becomes necessary, contact the courtroom deputy to obtain guidelines for special format. A discovery dispute motion must be by joint submission.
10. Trial depositions are to be scheduled so as not to delay trial or disrupt trial preparation. They may not be taken later than 10 days before the trial date unless agreed to by the parties or approved by the court. Continuance applications because of refusal of an expert witness to appear for trial or to be available for trial deposition will not be considered unless notice of the trial date was given to the witness at least 60 days in advance or at the earliest reasonable opportunity thereafter.
11. A Pretrial Stipulation is required, signed by all counsel.* The detailed provisions of Local Civil Rule 16.1(d)(2) are simplified, and the stipulation should be commensurate with the needs of the case. It should be submitted at least 10 days before the trial date. Counsel may file a separate pretrial memorandum pursuant to Local Civil Rule 16(c) only with permission of court. If the Joint Pretrial Stipulation is not submitted on time or in proper form, the case may be continued or put in suspense as not ready for trial.

12. Unexcused violations of scheduling orders are subject to sanctions under Fed.R.Civ.P. 16(f), upon motion or the court's initiative.
13. Note: Continuances of trial listings will be granted sparingly and only for compelling reasons.
14. Communications regarding the trial calendar should be directed to the courtroom deputy clerk: (267) 299-7589.
15. Electronic Filing System. See Use of Electronic Filing System - Judge Ludwig (attached).

Use of Electronic Filing System
Judge Ludwig

As recommended by the Clerk of Court, Judge Ludwig supports and encourages the use of the Court's Electronic Filing System for the submission of complaints, notices of appeal, notices of removal and other civil documents. The Electronic Filing System allows greater efficiency and timeliness in the filing of pleadings, as well as electronic storage of documents for remote access by the Court, the bar and the litigants. Applications are available from the Office of the Clerk of Court 601 Market Street Room 2609, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19106-1797 - or (267) 299-7061.

Counsel are advised that current telephone and FAX number(s) and any changes are to be submitted to the courtroom deputy clerk.

The use of the Electronic Filing System will result in the following benefits:

- expedient filing by litigants;
- instantaneous receipt of documents for filing;
- immediate availability of documents after filing for both the court and the public remote access.
